MISS HARNED DEAD.

Funeral Yesterday From Home In the City.

Miss Bird A. Harned died at her residence, Tuesday evening, of chronic nephritis. She has been in poor health for some time, and had been confined to her bed for ten days. Miss Harned was seventy-seven years old and had been a resident of this county for many years. She is survived by her sister, Mrs. J. W. Petrie, of Fairview, and a brother, B. W. Harned, of this city. The burial was held yesterday afternoon at 3:30 from the residence of the deceased. The Rev. A. R. Kasey conducted the funeral services. The body was interred in Riverside Cemetery.

Fletcher McElroy died Sunday at the asylum of chronic Bright's disease. The body was buried at the asylum grounds.

ANNUAL MEETING

Of Western Kentucky Soldiers Association at Sadlers Grove.

The twenty-first annual meeting of Western Kentucky Soldiers' Association, held at Sadler's Grove July 4, was attended by the largest crowd ever presented on a similar occasion. Music was furnished by Witty's Band. There were eloquent orations by Rev. C. C. Hall and Mr. Claude R. Clark, beautiful recitations by several little girls and young ladies and plenty of dinner for every body. Wesley S. Witty was re-elected President and C. A. Brasker, Secretary.

Williams-Stewart.

Miss Opal Stewart and Mr. Geo. E. Williams were married Tuesday, at the Hill House, by the Rev. C. M. Thompson. The bride was from Gracey and the groom, from Trenton.

BOSWORTH 942 MAJORITY

McDermott's Plurality Over
Edwards 1,934.

ONE COUNTY IS STILL OUT

Three Counties Out in Lieutenant Governor's Race.

Louisville, July 5.—With the returns from Casey county missing in the Democratic State Primary in the State Auditor's race Henry M. Bosworth leads Ruby Laffoon 942 votes.
With three counties missing in the Lieutenant Governor's race, E. J.
McDermott leads James P. Edwards
1,934 votes.

The State Committee will canvass
the votes in the primary on July 20
and issue certificates to those candidates who were nominated. These two races were the only close contests which resulted from the election.

BETHEL OVERFLOWING

Necessary to Rent a House for Dormitory Purposes.

Prof. H. G. Brownell has rented the residence property on the corner of Main and Thirteenth streets known as the Anderson place, to convert it into a dormitory for Bethel Female College.

This is made necessary by the crowded condition of the college, the school having outgrown its present boarding capacity of 40. The dormitory will give room for 20 to 25 more girls, as there are ten rooms in the big dwelling house. The problem of furnishing the house at once confronts the school and a popular subscription will be taken up, as the institution is without an endowment.
A movement will also be started to build a dormitory on the college grounds by another year.

The dormitory will be in charge of Mrs. Chas. W. Albany, of Louisville, as matron, whose daughter will enter the school.

Atwood-Brown.

Miss Fannie May Brown and Mr.
O. T. Atwood were married near Cerulean, Monday. Rev. Turner officiated at the wedding.

W. H. HALL

Thrown From a Horse and Dangerously Hurt.

Mr. William H. Hall was thrown from a horse, yesterday morning, and was seriously injured. When Dr. Perkins left, it was reported that Mr. Hall was dangerously injured. The horse which Mr. Hall was riding became frightened and threw the rider, falling on top of him. The exact nature of his injuries is not known at this writing. He had many bruises but no bones broken. Unless internally injured he will soon be out of danger.
Mr. Hall lives on the Canton pike, near town.

CANVASS BEGUN

By Inspectors in Search of Germ Breeders.

The City Inspector is preparing to wage a crusade against any filth and germ-breeding localities in Hopkinsville. The Health Officer and Inspector are to be aided in a house-to-house canvass, by assistants. It has been determined to rid the city of all obnoxious, odious and unhealthy situations. Out-houses, stables, and such buildings must be cleaned, garbage-piles and dump-heaps must be removed.

Some of the citizens of Hopkinsville have been very lax about this matter, and have not taken into consideration their neighbors. There are some porches in the city that can not be used on account of the offensive odors from some nearby foul spot. In some places refuse and garbage have been dumped month after month without removing. This is unsanitary as well as unlawful.

Notices are being served and steps will be taken to compel owners, on whose property such are situated, to remove them.

Death in Roaring Fire.

May not result from the work of firebugs, but often severe burns are caused that make a quick need for Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the quickest surest cure for burns, wounds, bruises, boils, sores. It subdues inflammation. It kills pain. It soothes and heals. Drives off skin eruptions, ulcers or piles. Only 25c at all druggists.

Heavy Verdict.

Paris, Ky., July 5.—Because she was mistaken for a negress and compelled to leave the coach for white passengers and take to the "Jim Crow" car, Miss Rella Ritchell of Kokomo, Ind., was given a verdict for $3,750 against the L. & N. Railroad in the Bourdon Circuit Court.
Miss Ritchell asked for $25,000 damages. She is a Russian Jewess of very dark complexion. Capt. Robert Lusk, the conductor, testified that some of the white passengers objected that Miss Ritchell was a mulatto and that he made the same mistake because of her complexion. Miss Ritchell introduced many witnesses who testified to her high standing.

have my same hand that worked for me at Forbes' shop and has worked for me for the past ten years, and also have Mr. McDonald, who has had charge of H. W. Dorris' shoeing shop since I quit two years ago, and will say that you can't find two better shoers in the city than these two men, and I, myself, can shoe a horse some, and will say your horse will be treated right at our shop, just like it was my own. Every shoe guaran-

PROMINENT WOMAN

Ends Her Life With a Pistol In Clarksville.

Clarksville, Tenn., July 4.—Mrs. Lizzy Ware fatally shot herself at the home of Will Ware, her son, here yesterday. As a result of a period of ill health of over one year's duration her mind for some months had become involved, but not to that extent that apprehension of such a fate was felt by the family.

Mrs. Ware came to Clarksville ten days ago on a visit to her son's family. She owned a splendid home of her own at Trenton, Ky., and was the widow of Charles Ware, who at the time of his death was a wealthy and widely known citizen of Todd county, Ky. She resided much of the time with her daughter, the widow of the late Frank Walton, of Todd county. It was from there that she came ten days ago to visit in this city.

Mrs. Ware lingered in an unconscious condition until 2 o'clock, when death occurred. The body will be taken to Trenton, Ky., to-morrow morning, where the interment will take place.

A Splendid Tonic.

Cora, Ky.—Mrs. Iva Moore, of this place, says, "I was so weak, I could hardly walk. I tried Cardui, and was greatly relieved. It is a splendid tonic. I have recommended Cardui to many friends, who tried it with good results." Testimony like this comes unsolicited, from thousands of earnest women, who have been benefited by the timely use of that successful tonic medicine, Cardui. Purely vegetable, mild, but reliable, Cardui well merits its high place in the esteem of those who have tried it. It relieves women's pains, and strengthens weak women. It is certainly worth a trial. Your druggist sells Cardui.

In Tough Luck.

Evansville, Ind., July 2.—Holding up four young men on the Louisville and Nashville railroad, near the city late last night, two armed men made two of the party change clothes with them, went through the pockets of all of them and took what money they had and then made the four run rapidly down the railroad, telling them they would shoot if they looked back. The four young men are Jacob Harris, Herschel Hays, Hugh Rudd and Vernon Howard, all of Hopkinsville, Ky. They came to the city later and notified the police of their experience with the hold up men. The police have no clue to identify of the robbers.

Saves Two Lives.

"Neither my sister nor myself might be living today, if it had not been for Dr. King's New Discovery," writes A. D. McDonald, of Fayetteville, N. C. R. F. D. No. 8. "For we both had frightful coughs that no other remedy could help. We were told my sister had consumption. She was very weak and had night sweats but your wonderful medicine completely cured us both. It's the best I ever used or heard of." For sore lungs, coughs, colds, hemorrhage, lagrippe, asthma, hay fever, croup, whooping cough,—all bronchial troubles,—it's supreme. Trial bottle free. 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by all druggists.

Lucky Princeton.

Princeton is enjoying the luxury of 100 pounds of ice for 25 cents, sold by the Princeton Ice and Storage Co., of which C. W. Metcalfe is manager.

Really Hard Luck.

Four men were sympathizing with each other at an uptown hotel, according to the New York Sun. They were employees pretty well up on the staff list and two of them were assistant managers. They had indorsed checks for acquaintances that they supposed were all right, and, according to the rule, had to make good. "I'm worse stuck than any of you," said the chief engineer. "The check I got stuck on was for $114 and the man who signed it is in jail."

Rebottled Eggs.

Eggs which have been boiled and yet not used may be kept and rebottled again without becoming hard boiled. This is not generally known, but if the egg has been soft cooked it may be put into boiling water for a few minutes to warm through and rebottle.

Youthful Experience of Sir Walter Runciman, Author of a Recent Book on Napoleon.

Sir Walter Runciman, author of the book on Napoleon, "The Tragedy of St. Helena," is a Scotsman. The sea early fascinated him, and at the age of twelve he ran away from home, tramped to a northeast coast port, and engaged himself as a cabin boy. His duties made his position anything but a sinecure and the treatment he received in it completed his disillusionment with reference to this particular vessel. The tyranny finally became unbearable and he managed to decamp at an Irish port. His love for the sea, however, remained, and before long he was serving on an American vessel, where he speedily became well liked. Unfortunately, his former captain, piqued at his successful escape, had him captured and brought back. Heavy punishment followed, with the not unnatural consequence of a second flight, which resulted in his getting to a boat upon which he served the full term of his apprenticeship.

At the right moment he left the sea for the business of ship-moving and management. He has found time to write three books besides his newest, and to take part in politics.

CHICKEN ROAST IN SCHOOL

Iowa Rural Teacher Makes School-house Center of Social Life of the District.

It is as true as it is strange that in Iowa many rural schools are so attractive that city boys are sent out of the city to attend the rural school. I know one country school in which there are six children from city schools. A "chicken roast" is the latest school attraction that I have known. A teacher is making the schoolhouse the center of social life for the district. She does not like the idea of having a dance in the school, and she will not have kissing frascos, so she plans various social functions with stunts and games that have abundance of life, that are new, that are harmless. She does quite a little along the line of refreshments, and every one takes a part in the preparation as well as in disposing of the feast. The greatest success she has ever had was a chicken roast. It was in the autumn, and was in the school yard. It was a close approach to a barbecue. Every man, woman and child in the district was there. Nothing else has ever aroused such an interest in the Kille district.—Journal of Education.

Some Historical Stamps.

Many intensely interesting historical events have been recorded in postage stamps so that a large collection of stamps often shows in a most striking manner how history was made. There is a period of French history which is particularly interesting in this way because the stamps issued at that time so plainly show the changes in the ruling power from monarchy to republic and back again.

On one French stamp you see Mon. Barre's head of Liberty and the words "Republie Franco." On the following issue of stamps—those issued in 1849—Louis Napoleon's head appears instead of the Liberty, the words on the stamp being still "Republie Franco." After that there was a new stamp, on which Louis Napoleon's head still appeared, but the words "Republie Franco" were replaced by "Empire France."

Parrot Frightened Burglar.

The cries of Oliver Twist, a South American parrot, which was awakened the other morning by a thief prowling in the home of his mistress, Mrs. M. Osburn of San Francisco, while she was absent, frightened away the burglar after he had gathered up articles worth $23. The watchfulness of Oliver, however, probably will result in his martyrdom, as the thief, angered at the interruption of his work, seized the bird by the neck and twisting it cruelly, flung him through a mirror in the dining-room. When Mrs. Osburn returned, Oliver was found on the floor in an exhausted condition, while an open rear door and the condition of the room gave evidence of the burglar's hasty flight.

Feeding London's Zoo.

It cost $23,490 to feed the animals in the London Zoo last year, hay, clover, and fruit being the three biggest items. Among the items were: Hay, 161 loads; straw, 208 loads; tares, 1,188 bundles; maize, 360 bushels; rice, 14 tons; canary seed, 150 bushels; shrimps, 1,835 pints; and fish, 28 tons. There were 218 horses, costing $1,505, and 152 goats; monkey nuts, 44½ hundredweights; 97,884 bananas, 4,219 pounds grapes, 13,013 oranges, 923¼ pecks and 31¼ cases apples, 7¼ tons mangels, 21,848 pounds potatoes, 6,806 quarters bread, 46,986 fowls' heads, 494 pounds sugar, 5,868 mice, and 3,875 sparrows.

A Boston Casulet.

Mrs. Klawier—But how in the world did you manage to hire this flat when the landlord is so set against families with children?

Mrs. Smart—I told him my children were all underground.

Mrs. K.—But that was or—

Mrs. S.—Oh, it was quite true. You see, at the time I told him, I'd sent the children riding through the subway.—Boston Evening Transcript.

FORGOT THE CORRECT WORD

Annie Luck's Husband Accused Her of Vagrancy Because She "Bust-ed" His Door.

The hearing room of the Front and Master streets police station was crowded with the curious the other morning when a young negro woman was hauled before Magistrate Scott. "What is your name?" asked the magistrate.

"Annie Luck," replied the prisoner.

"Annie Luck?" repeated the judge; "and what kind of luck brings you here?"

"Bad luck," said Annie. "That's my husband. Don't know what he done it for."

The magistrate turned to the husband and asked him why he had had his wife arrested.

"Why, for vagrancy," replied the husband.

"Vagrancy?" said the judge. "How do you make that out? Does she not live with you?"

"Yes," said the husband, "but she done bust open my door last night."

"Why," said the judge, "that is not vagrancy; that is hydrophobia."

"That right, judge?" said Luck.

"Excuse me, I'd done forget the right word."—Philadelphia Times.

THE REASON

De Quiz—I shouldn't think you could afford to play poker if you are so unlucky at it.

De Witt—What I lose at poker my wife makes up at bridge.

BUT IT DID HIM GOOD.

Mrs. N. Beebe Hasbrouck knows a little boy whose father, after many unheeded admonitions, took the young man out into the garage—they no longer afford woodsheds in that aristocratic quarter of the town—and with an implement selected for its utility for the matter in hand impressed upon his son and heir the necessity of obedience.

It was Walter's first experience, and he was much more enraged than subdued by the fall his pride suffered in the premises. The ordeal over, he turned to his father with flashing eyes and sobbed: "All right for you, dad, but I want you distinctly to understand that you are not my mother!"

Nevertheless, a mighty change has come over him since that day.—Cleveland Leader.

EASY FOR TOKYO POLICE.

The Japanese police have an easier time than their confreres in Europe. Crime in the land of the chrysanthemum is almost limited to theft and tragedies, or serious cases of bodily harm resulting from street brawls. It is next to impossible, the chief of the Tokyo police says, for a murder to be committed without some one hearing of it at the moment. This is due to the fact that the houses are composed of paper and bamboo, so any noise in a house occasioned by robbers or assassins would not fail to attract the attention of neighbors.

WELL BROUGHT UP.

No child of parents in moderate circumstances has been brought up more simply than Miss Marguerite, the fifteen-year-old daughter of Andrew Carnegie. She has spent her time in study, with plenty of play, and in every way she has not been allowed to indulge in foolish display.

HAIR DRESSER'S VERSION.

A woman's crowning glory is her puffs, braids, switches, pompadours, chignons, psyche knots, clusters, nets, rolls, rats and Billie Burke curls.—Woman's Home Companion.

ALWAYS.

Accum—What in your opinion is the best business to which a young man can give his attention?

Tellit—His own.

CHIEF DUTY OF SHEPHERD

It is to Shear the Sheep, According to Children of Whom Dr. Jowett Tells.

Rev. Dr. Jowett, at a dinner in New York, said, apropos of his salary:

"The cost of living is so high over here that I have decided, after all, to accept the generous salary that I first declined. I hope that this acceptance won't call to my congregation's minds, however, the story of the sheep."

"A minister, you know, was once addressing a Sunday school. It was a Sunday school of little children, and the minister in his address desired to compare himself to a shepherd, and his congregation to the shepherd's flock."

"What are these beautiful animals?" he said, pointing to a drawing on the blackboard.

"Sheep! Sheep!" chorused the children.

"And the cloaked figure in the foreground—what is he?"

"A shepherd!" the children cried.

"Exactly," agreed the minister, beaming with satisfaction. "And now, dear children, can you tell me what it is that the shepherd does for the sheep?"

"A score of little mouths opened wide, and a score of treble voices cried shrilly:

"He shears 'em!"

SURE SIGN OF CONVERSION

If the Sinner for Salvation Tries to Remove His Tattoo Marks, He Will Stick.

After a month of doubt as to the new convert's sincerity the missionary made up his mind that he was going to stick.

"He is trying to find some way to remove tattoo marks," said the missionary. "That is a sure sign that he means business. Tattooing is not necessarily incompatible with religion, but a lot of converts seem to think it is and are anxious to shed those marks along with their bad habits. Pagan designs that they picked up in tropical countries strike them as especially irreverent."

"The average convert can worry along pretty comfortably with mermaids, anchors, and other emblems of the sea printed on his arms, but heathen gods and goddesses afflict his conscience sorely. In some cases of tattooing there is a repeated application of tannin that will remove the marks, but that is not always effective, and many a sincere Christian has to go through life with the picture of a heathen idol on his forearm."

Early School Books.

The horn book invented in 1450 and used considerably up to the close of the eighteenth century was the usual textbook of the elementary school. A thin slab of hard wood was covered with parchment, on which was printed the capital and small letters, numerals and some elementary syllables and words.

Over this a thin sheet of transparent cow's horn was placed and firmly bound so that no moisture could penetrate. To this the Bible and the sampler on which little girls painfully stitched the letters of the alphabet, some "Godly sayings" and a border of herring stitch, or some conventional pattern of impossible flowers and foliage and the legend "Mary Smith, her sampler," or the like, were about all that the children used up to the beginning of the eighteenth century.

Window Glass.

Utility is the mother of nearly all decorative features. Windows were first designed to give light. The history of glass shows that the useful has taken decorative prominence. In old colonial houses glass in small panes was used probably because it was cheap. The sash was divided by small pieces of wood called mullions. After many years glass came to be used in large sizes, and of recent years it has been the practice to have but a single sheet, often in a very large size of plate glass. These are permissible only where the view warrants their use. The average house or cottage is better without them, as they suggest the show window of a shop rather than a dwelling.

Halcyon Days.

Alycone, or Halcyone, the daughter of Aeolus, married Ceyx. Ceyx was drowned and Alycone, on learning his fate, threw herself into the sea. The gods were moved by the tragedy of the young lovers; they brought them back to life in the form of halcyons, or kingfishers, and they decreed that for the seven days from December 22 to December 29 the sea should remain calm while the seabirds built their nests upon it. Those seven days, the last of the year, are therefore called the halcyon days, days of tranquillity.—London Globe.

Styles in Cigarette Cases.

The newest cigarette case is a combination of gold and platinum, very thin and perfectly flat, carrying only a single row of cigarettes. The curving styles are no longer considered the mode, the new cases being so flat that they are easily carried in the vest pocket. These are in gold with stripes of platinum, the stripes being sometimes one-sixteenth of an inch wide, or again five or six hair-lines of platinum unite to form a stripe on the gold.

Little Jennie Draper, two and one half years of age, died at her home, near Roaring Springs.

Senator Warren, of Wyoming, aged 67, is to wed a rich young woman only 35, Miss Clara Morgan, of Washington.

Bryant Baker has been appointed to assist Inspector Merritt in a house-to-house canvass of the city. Better clean up before they get around to you.

Mr. W. H. Gee, a farmer, died at his home near Roaring Springs, yesterday morning at four o'clock, of acute indigestion. He was fifty-three years old.

After lingering at death's door for nearly a month, General Clement A. Evans, aged 79, formerly commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans, died at his home in Atlanta, of Bright's disease.

Louisville, Ky., July 4.—Zacariah F. Smith, formerly state superintendent of public instruction and author of Smith's history of Kentucky, was found dead in bed by his wife early this morning at his home here. Death resulted from the excessive heat, coupled with an attack of vertigo. Mr. Smith was 84 years old and had spent the greater part of his life as an educator.

PREMIUM LIST GREAT FEAST

RURAL SCHOOLS RECOGNIZED

KENTUCKY STATE FAIR GOES THE LIMIT IN ENCOURAGING EXHIBITORS.

The annual premium list for the Kentucky State Fair, which is just out of the hands of the printer, teems with good things in the way of awards, all of a character to attract exhibitors. Thousands of copies are being mailed to prospective exhibitors and the demand for them is unprecedented. A glance through the pages of the premium list, which is attractively gotten up both from a standpoint of mechanical work and of arrangement, furnishes pleasing surprises.

Among the new departments will be the educational, with prizes for the children in connection with the rural schools. These prizes will be divided among the classes in sewing, cooking, map drawing, model lessons, writing, spelling, etc. The premium list was placed in competent hands by Prof. Elmerworth Regenstein, at the head of this department, he having designated Mr. Mellemey Rhodes, of Owensboro, and Prof. T. J. Cones, of Richmond, for that purpose. Such a department is certain to appeal to the enthusiasm of both teachers and pupils, and spirited contests are expected.

This recognition of the rural schools is in line with the policy of the management to recognize the sections of the state from which a big part of the support for the Kentucky State Fair is expected.

SKILLFUL OPERATION

Performed Successfully by Dr. T. W. Perkins.

Dr. T. W. Perkins on Sunday afternoon performed an operation for suppurative appendicitis upon Miss Sadie Maddux, daughter of C. R. Maddux, near Casky, which was a complete success and the young lady is out of danger. She was Dr. Sanbach's patient, who called in the Hopkinsville surgeon.

The will of Mrs. Mary Olmstead of Brooklyn, filed in the surrogate's office in Kings county recently, makes a provision that none of the legatees are to receive their share of the estate until they reach the age of sixty-five years, except in the case of the two grandchildren, who will receive their share when they become thirty-five years of age.

Kissless Bride.

Mrs. Edith Russel Gambier, the "kissless bride," whose suit for separation from her husband, Edward J. HOPKINSVILLE SAILOR

Who Writes of His Experience In Russia.

Reuel Hanberry, son of Mr. D. W. Hanberry, of this city, is a sailor on the U. S. S. South Carolina, stationed June 16 at Cronstadt, Russia. We are permitted to make the following extracts from a letter to his parents. "I didn't know the States were so good until I came to these countries. Everybody has to be careful what he says and a poor man is allowed so much money and no more. Once a poor man, always a poor man."

There are three classes of people here, one the poor class that never take a wash, one a little better and another a little better still, the lower class has to serve in the Navy. The higher classes are officers in the various organizations and one class has nothing to do with the other and the poorer classes can look cross eyed at one of the other classes and get strung up. There are three prisons not very far from the ship. They look like large forts built out in the water. In the bottom floor the water is up to their waists and they have to stand in that so long each day.

I was over in St. Petersburg the other day. It is a pretty place with lots of domes and old buildings. I wanted to go through the Czar's palace but it was too late. There are few autos, just little carriages with large oval shaped yokes over the horses necks. The streets are made of cobble stones and are very rough.

We leave here Sunday for Kiel, Germany, a place that I care most to see. I think we will have a nice time there, though we have had a nice time everywhere we have been.

ODD BANQUET IN NEW YORK

Doctor Entertains Seventy-five Former Patients to Celebrate Anniversary of Cure's Discovery.

"In New York, where a really sociable man can eat at reunions and club meetings three or four times a day, the chance to get one more square meal should not attract attention," said the city salesman, "but I was invited to a dinner the other night that marked the birth of such a novel society that it is worth making a note of."

"The invitation was issued by a kind of quack doctor, who cured me of an attack of rheumatism. The method of treatment was new and the doctor's own invention. Counting in myself, about seventy-five persons had been invited to the feast. The doctor had cured them all in one year and he had invited us there to celebrate the anniversary of his discovery."

"We were a funny looking bunch; young and old, rich and poor, men and women. A fashion plate that should undertake to describe the costumes worn would have to include everything from shirtwaists to spangled chiffon gowns, and from hand-me-down serge suits to brand new evening clothes. Notwithstanding our apparent incongruity we mixed as easily as the ingredients of the doctor's new medicine and had a fine time."

GLASS BOTTOMS FOR SHIPS

Scheme That, It Is Asserted, Will Increase the Speed and Save Coal Consumption.

If ships' bottoms were covered with glass, it is asserted, greater speed and a saving in coal consumption would be attained. The idea has been tried, but hitherto it has always been found impracticable to attach glass to the steel plates of a ship, as the expansion of the steel broke the glass after a very slight rise in temperature.

After many experiments a composition of rosin and linseed oil was adopted as the adhesive material and the difficulty of the expansion of the steel was overcome by the introduction of a thin layer of wood pulp under the glass. A patent has just been taken out in England covering the process. The patentee says that the cost of placing the glass plates on the sea-covered bottom will not exceed that of two coats of paint.

ICE IN PERSIA.

The fact that ice is plentiful and cheap makes living in Persia more pleasant than it would otherwise be, and the fact that it can be obtained at all is indicative of the ingenuity of the people of the country. The ground is so porous that water percolates through quickly. There are therefore few rivers or lakes from which ice can be obtained, and it is seldom so cold in any part of Persia that ice of a thickness suitable for packing would form under the direct rays of the sun. The Persian obtains his ice by making a shallow pool and building a high wall which will protect it from the sun. A thin layer of ice will form; this he floods at night with water, and so he goes on adding inch to inch until he can get a block of considerable thickness.

WHEN THE CRANE BROKE.

An astounding accident occurred at Buckie, Banffshire, Scotland, a few days ago. A thirty ton steam crane, which had been used at the harbor extension works, was swinging a fifteen-ton block of concrete into position, when it collapsed owing to the pivot pinion wheel breaking. The jib was smashed, and the crane disappeared into the sea, engine and all. The engine driver saved himself by jumping, and the divers' boat, with its crew of eight, floating alongside, had a narrow escape, both from the falling mass and from swamping by the wave sent up.

HIS DESTINY.

"I wish Willie had been born a girl!"

"Why?"

"Oh, he is such a cry baby. I wish I could do something to stop his sniveling at everything that comes up."

"To stop it? Encourage it, you mean! Nature evidently intended that boy for a United States senator."—Houston Post.

Who Was There That You Knew?

IN the shadowy ranks of those who marched to defeat or death or victory fifty years ago in the mighty conflict that convulsed this great nation, is there father or grandfather or uncle of yours? Would you like to see a photograph of him in that long ago day of his youth—a photograph that he never knew was taken? Perhaps we can show you one; and in any case, we can tell you a story, stranger than any detective fiction, of 3,500 priceless photographs that were lost and are found again.

3,500 Long Buried Photographs of the Civil War 12 of These FREE

THEY were taken by the greatest photographer in the United States of that day; they were bought by the United States Government for $30,000; they were buried in the War Department for 50 years—they are buried there still. But a duplicate set was kept by the photographer—who died poor and broken down; that duplicate set was knocked from pillar to post for nearly 50 years, until it was discovered by a New England collector. J. Pierpont Morgan tried to secure the collection—President Garfield and General Benjamin F. Butler said it was worth $150,000—yet with the help of the Review or Reviews, the entire collection has been gathered into 10 great volumes and is placed within your reach for less than the value of one of the photographs. It is the one accurate, impartial history of the Civil War—never heard before. Taken under protection of the Secret Service, these photographs bring to light thousands of little-known phases of the war: they penetrate to strange places and record strange things.

CLOTHING DEPARTMENT

Isn't it sound business reasoning that says every garment should be sold the season for which it is made. We are planning big things for next fall and winter and we are not going to be hampered by what we now have. Prices are plain facts but it's hard to carry quality on paper. Every garment is marked in plain figures, so no chance for you to make a mistake by buying these Hirsh Wickwire and Clothcraft Clothes that need no recommendation.

WILDEST COUNTRY NOW LEFT BLOWS TO ENGLISH WRITING

Part of Arizona That Has Been Visited by Only Two or Three White Travelers.

Letters received from Zane Gray indicated that the author of "The Heritage of the Desert" had some interesting experiences ahead of him.
His last letter was dated Flagstaff, Ariz., and is as follows: "I leave here tomorrow for Navajo mountain.
There is only one man who knows the trail and his name is Wetherall.
He lives in the Painted Desert about 200 miles out and his place is the last trading post. I have an old timer—in fact, a 'forty-niner,' to take me out to Tuba, Oraibi, Red lake and then on to Wetherall's.
From there the country is exceedingly barren and wild. In fact, my guide says it is the wildest country left in the United States. Two years ago a geological survey man got a Navajo to take him to this mountain and this trip resulted in the discovery of the wonderful natural bridge that the Navajos worship.
Since then only two or three travelers have undertaken the journey. So I expect a hard but wonderful trip.
I hope to get out in a month or six weeks."—Harper's Weekly.

J. B. YEATS' STUDY IN BOYS

In Ireland They Like Them Bright and Send the Dull Ones to England.

To Harper's Weekly J. B. Yeats contributes a delightful article upon the Irish boy, contrasted with the Englishman's son. "The overwhelming majority of Irish families are poor, ambitious and intellectual," writes this author, "and all have the national habit, once indigenous in 'Merry England,' of much conversation. In modern England they like a dull man and so they like a dull boy. We like bright men and bright boys. When there is a dull boy we send him to England and put him into business where he may sink or swim, and he generally swims;
but a bright boy is a different story.
Quickly he becomes the family confident, learning all about the family necessities; with so much frank conversation it cannot be otherwise. He knows every detail in the school bills and what it will cost to put him through the university . . . as he grows older he watches, like an expert, the younger brothers coming on and is eager to advise in his young wisdom as to their prospects."

AND PROUD OF HIS FEAT?

Frank Emerson is the owner of a pair of shoes which he has had for 23 years and which are in good order at present and have been worn by him every day. There has not been a year in the twenty-three in which Mr. Emerson has not worn this remarkable pair of shoes.

He first wore the shoes on Sundays only, and even reckoning that he had worn them on Sunday only for the entire 23 years he would have worn them every day for three years and 101 days. The shoes were originally of the side elastic type, but a short time ago Mr. Emerson had them made into laced shoes.—Skowhegan Letter to the Kennebec Journal.

THE GENESIS OF O. K.

As to slang—you know, of course, the meaning of O. K., one of the many expressions of perfection. And you probably have been brought up in the belief that the initials originated with an illiterate man who marked his business accounts O. K.
as meaning "Oll Korrect." But a Chicago paper has found another and an American origin. During the Civil war O. Kenkall & Sons started manufacturing a very popular brand of army biscuits that were preferred to bread. As they were stamped with the firm's initials—
well you see the rest.

BIG HOUSEKEEPING PLANT.

Miss Emily Wayland Dinwiddie
has been appointed as housekeeper of the Trinity tenements in New York. There are 334 tenements, holding 788 families, and the housekeeping is naturally a very extensive affair. She investigated the property some time ago, and the outcome of her work was that she keeps house where she had been studying the conditions.

HAVEN'T THEY?

Remarks of Stephen Crane and Ford Madox Hueffer About Stevenson and Rosetti.

Ford Madox Hueffer, whose "Memories and Impressions" deals with poets, painters and musicians from the time of Morris and Ruskin almost down to the present hour, likes to tell of an irreverent remark
he once heard the late Stephen Crane make about Robert Louis Stevenson. "I remember," says Mr.
Hueffer, "hearing him, with his wonderful eyes flashing and his extreme vigor and intonation, comment upon a sentence he was reading. The sentence was:
'With interjected finger he delayed the motion of the time-piece.' Crane exclaimed: 'By God!
poor dear! That man put back the clock of English fiction fifty years.'"
In his book, however, Mr. Hueffer says that in his opinion "the art of writing in English received the numbing blow of the sandbag when Rosetti at the age of eighteen wrote
'The Blessed Damsel.' From that time forward the idea has been inherent in the mind of the English writer that writing was a matter of digging for obsolete words."—Harper's Weekly.

NOT FOR HIM

The Golfer—Do you play golf?
Chaffeur—No, it is so very hard to hit anybody.

JUDGE SUSTAINED HIM.

To be called redheaded is sufficient provocation to start a fight, if the manner of the person using the name is manifestly unfriendly, according to a decision handed down
by Police Judge Pollard.

This important ruling was made in the case of Bert E. Manley vs.
Solomon Weisman and Jerome Weisman. Manley did not deny the patent physical fact that his hair is red. He admitted that if one of his friends slapped him on the back and affectionately said: "Hello, you redhead!" he would not be angry.

He testified it was different when the Weisman brothers called him that.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

WISDOM'S COURSE.

When Amos J. Cummins was a member of the house of representatives he went on a hunting expedition with his friend, Capt. Howard F. Kennedy. One day when they were rather hungry they approached a farmhouse, the door of which was wide open, but no member of the family was at home. A big bulldog welcomed them kindly and Captain Kennedy started up the stairs leading to the portico when the dog quit wagging his tail, showed his teeth and growled ominously. Cummins stepped outside the gate and called:
"Go ahead, Howard; and if he bites
you, we'll run."

BOY SCOUT MOVEMENT.

A Socialist Woman's club in Indianapolis recently denounced the boy scout idea as one of the aids to ideas of militarism that are in favor with certain persons. Evidently the club has not looked very seriously into the subject, as the boy scout has other things to do besides bearing arms. He is pledged to maintain the good order of the country and to take the greatest pride in his own part of it. Moreover, in matters of personal import he is taught to keep himself clean and honest that he may be a good citizen.

STRIKING REPLY.

"Sir, I offer your daughter a fine old family name and myself to boot."
"You needn't take the trouble. I'll do the booting."

TRUTH COMES OUT.

Mrs. Upson—They tell me you keep boarders. Is it true?
Mrs. Downing—Certainly not. My

Hopkinsville 17-5, Fulton 2-1.

Hopkinsville and Clarksville are still running neck and neck in the games between these two leading teams. In the first series, each team won two games, one being postponed. The games were played as a double header Monday and each team won a game. Tuesday the games for the fourth, scheduled for Clarksville, were divided. The morning game at Clarksville was won by Hopkinsville 4 to 2 and the afternoon game was captured by Clarksville with the decisive score of 9 to 2. Beck umpired in both games and while there was some complaint of his decisions on balls and strikes, the McGraws were clearly out played in the final game, before the record-breaking crowd of the League.

There are 4 more games with Clarksville. The first was yesterday, the next will be at Nashville today and the others will be here the 7th and 8th.

KITTY MEWS

Saturday's games, omitted Tuesday are reported today.

We can not afford to drop any more games. Come out and help us win.

This half will soon be over. Some have already begun to predict the outcome of the last half.

Curtis, the Clarksville manager, has an eagle eye when it comes to batting.

McArthur pitched well in the morning game, and in two innings of the afternoon game.

There were about 1,000 hundred people out at the game, Tuesday. If we could only bring out that many every day.

Zimmerman made a costly error in Tuesday's game; but this can almost be excuse, on account of the other fine plays he made.

In spite of the fact that Gosnell appoints the umpires, and the spurt the Alices took, they can not win the pennant.

Conklin and not Beck umpired the game here last week. Beck made his appearance here Tuesday. We consider Conklin the best umpire who has been here.

50 games played, the standing of Hopkinsville is 700, a lead of 104 points over the nearest contestant. There are 13 games more to be played in the first half.

Claybourne Beazley, the Vincennes pitcher who starred last year, has been with Terre Haute, has returned to the Kitty League in the Mogul uniform.

Henderson fans met Monday night and lacked $500 of having the franchise guaranty. They were given until today to raise the balance and resumed canvassing with confidence.

Quite a large crowd came over from Clarksville to see the game on the fourth. This is rather surprising, after we had beaten them that morning.

Huhn came up Main Street, from the train, Tuesday, with his grip in one hand, and a fan in the other. He is not the only one that wielded a fan that day.

They certainly gave our famous "Hungarian Battery" theirs, yesterday. Yon was sent to the tall nut cut for seven runs, and two of the men he left on bases tallied.

Clarksville seems to be holding her own with us. As long as we continue to play fair with the villagers by dividing the games with them, they will not go ahead of us, but our percentage will drop.

Harrisburg is due here on the 9th., following the Clarksville games.

There are to be three games. Then the McLeansboro team comes for three games. We then go to the latter city for three contests.

Jack Summers, of Altoona, Pa., is our new second-base man. He is a personal friend of Yon, and comes with the latter's recommendation. He is a big young fellow, and promises to turn out well. He takes Clark's position, and played his first game Monday.

FIRE IN FIELD

Wheat Separator Destroyed by Flames Near Pembroke.

A valuable separator belonging to Mr. Will Dudley near Pembroke, was destroyed by fire a few days ago. Mr. Dudley was threshing wheat when a spark from the engine set the straw on fire and the separator became ignited. The wheat which had been threshed was hauled off and only one sack burned. The separator cost $850.

Three Negroes Killed.

Madisonville, Ky., July 4.—Three negro men were killed in and around Madisonville on the Fourth. Will Darden was run over by a train at Earlington and was instantly killed. The body of Herschel Perkins, a negro boy was found dead. There were two bad wounds on his head and it is believed he was killed by an enemy. His body, however, was found near the L. & N. tracks. An unknown negro was killed by a train at Atkinson station, his head being severed from his body.

SIZZLING HOT.

Sunday was a Scorch and Monday Still Warmer.

A hot wave has prevailed throughout the country for the past several days, the temperature going up into the nineties every day. On Sunday the mercury in the local government tube registered 102 degrees and Sunday night was one of the warmest nights experienced in this section for a long time. Monday was still warmer and the official register showed 105. The century mark is still being touched.

S. S. Picnic.
